MEMORANDUM FOR: SB/CAO

SUBJECT : Soviet Ukrainian lawyers petition for Ukraine's right to separation from the Soviet Union

1. Several reports were received in the past three years to the effect that a group of Soviet Ukrainian lawyers had been arrested for sending to the United Nations and to Soviet authorities a petition complaining about the colonial status of the Ukrainian SSR and demanding its constitutional rights to independence. These reports, however, were never substantiated until a copy of the court verdict and information obtained during a visit with Ivan SVITLYCHNYY (literary critic), in Kiev, in September of this year were received. Following is the substance of the verdict and the information given to a Project AERODYNAMIC source by Ivan SVITLYCHNYY.

2. Beginning with 1957, the 7 individuals named later in this memorandum were involved in activities concerned with undermining the authority and prestige of the CPSU, dissemination of literature criticizing Soviet Communist Party theories, and separation of the Ukraine from the Soviet Union. In 1959, Lev Hryhorovych LUKYANENKO and Stepan Martynovich VERUN drew up plans for the organization of the Ukrainian Workers Peasants Union, (UWPU) a nationalist group which called for a struggle against the Soviet State and for separation of the Ukraine from the Union, and for the establishment of an "independent Ukraine". (Information about the Workers Peasants Union was first brought out to the West by a Western citizen in 1964.) On the basis of the program of the UWPU, LUKYANENKO and VERUN recruited KANDYBA, LUTSKIV, BOHOVNYTSKY and LIBOVICH (see below). There was a meeting of the group held on 6 November 1960. Another meeting was scheduled for 22 January 1961, but the men were arrested prior to that date. Mykola VASICHUK (or VASHUK), a student of the higher Party school, who was present at the meeting of 6 November 1960 denounced the group to the KGB prior to the January 1961 meeting.
